"Mussulmans living in the coast districts have fled into the interior and several villages have been evacuated by the Turks."

The bombardment was resumed yesterday morning, says a dispatch to "Le Matin" from Athens. Seventy small mine sweepers are reported to be continuing their efforts to clear the mine fields, under the direction of officers representing the British and French navies.

Catholics in Every Neutral Land to Fray Sunday for World Peace

A prayer for peace will be offered Passion Sunday, one week from to-day, in all dioceses of the Catholic Church outside of Europe. By decree of Pope Benedict XV this prayer was offered in European countries February 7.

Cardinal Farley has directed that announcement be made in all churches to-day that special religious functions will be celebrated next Sunday. The decree, issued by Cardinal Gasparri, Secretary of State, and the prayer have been sent to each church. The decree relates how the Pope, deeply afflicted, exhorts the faithful to offer solemn prayers "to obtain from the mercy of Almighty God the peace which

The prayer is as follows:

Dismayed by the horrors of a war which is bringing ruin to peoples and nations, we turn, O Jesus, to Thy most loving heart as to our last hope. O God of mercy, with tears we invoke Thee to end this fearful scourge; O King of Peace, we humbly implore the peace for which we long. From Thy sacred heart Thou didst shed forth over the world divine charity, so that discord might end and love alone might reign among men.

During Thy life on earth Thy heart beat with tender compassion for the sorrows of men; in this hour, made terrible with burning hate, with bloodshed and with slaughter, once more may Thy divine heart be moved to pity. Pity the countless mothers in anguish for the fate of their sons; pity the numberless families now bereaved of their fathers; pity Europe, over which broods such havoc and disaster. Do Thou inspire rulers and peoples with counsels of meekness; do Thou heal the discords that tear the nations asunder. Thou who didst shed Thy precious blood that they might live as brothers, bring men together once more in loving harmony And, as once before to the cry of the Apostle Peter: Save us, Lord, we perish, Thou didst answer with words of mercy and didst still the raging waves, so now deign to hear our trustful prayer, and give back to the world peace and tranquillity.

And do thou, O most holy Virgin, as in other times of sore distress, be our help, our protection and our safeguard. Amen.

New Troops Arriving to Aid in Drive Against Polish City-Czar's Chiefs Prepared.

Petrograd, March 13.-The German drive from Khorjele against the Rus sian line extending in front of Prassnyz and northeastward appears to have been checked, at least temporarily The invading forces threatening Przasnysz reached a point within 1,500 yards of the Russians' trenches before they were forced to retire.

A noticeable slackening in the vigor of the German offensive in Northern Peland is noticed in to-night's official statement from the Russian General Staff, which claims a few successes of a local character.

The Germans appear to be setting The Germans appear to be setting the stage with much deliberation for the new attempt on Przasnysz. The artillery engagement which has been in progress evidently was intended to feel out the Russian positions and clear the arena for the advance of the German infantry. Under cover of the artillery fire the Germans are placing newly arrived troops.

The Russian General Staff is alive to all these preparations and expresses

We have consolidated our positions everywhere. When the ground gained by us at Epages came to be cleared up we discovered further machine guns, which bring the number lost by the Germans at this point to four.

At Bois le Prêtre we checked an attack which the Germans attempted. (Issued at 3:45 p. m.)—In the bend of the Yser the Felgian army has consolidated and increased the results obtained by it on Thursday.

The British troops continue to progress. They crossed the brook of Layes, which runs parallel to the road from Neuve Chapelle to Fleuvaix. Between this road and Aubers they captured several trenches. At the end of the day they reached a road nown as the "Highway to I.I.," which runs from the northwest to the southeast toward Aubers and to the suburbs of that place.
